

Sara Bannon

The nitty-gritty truth is this: I am infatuated with bouncy and vibrant visuals that inspire elation and thought. I am a whole lot of energy and drive, and I want to use these powers for good! My love for story, design, the world of fashion, and the expression in music make my world spin, and I absorb knowledge on these subjects consistently and with great dedication. A high energy, sociable, original, perfectionist appreciating environment of experimentation is where I will do my best work, and I can not wait to do so.
